Atlantic Cup Final To-day, Special Matches Saturday.

Three picked teams met in a round robin to-day at the Point Judith Polo Club and furnished good polo to watch, besides enjoying every minute of the three periods they played in each game. The Wanderers first tied with the Freebooters at 2 all and next defeated the Magples by 5 to 3. In the last contest the Magples won from the Freebooters by 3 to 6.

According to the onlookers the honors seemed to rest with the Wanderers, who were Hugh Legree, T. Leboutillier, Lieut, Johnston and C. Craddock, although there were changes at intervals on each team.

To-morrow the final for the Atlantic cup will be played between the Cooperstown and Philadelphia Freebooter teams, the latter receiving 5 goals. The tournaments

Some sugar refiners affect to believe that because their product is a necessity it need not be advertised.

But there is competition in the sugar business and competition is the life of trade. The sugar refiner who thinks he has not enough business should brand his product and advertise it in the New York City Surface Cars—already responsible for the popularizing of many reputable food products. Over 1,800,000 sugar consumers are carried in these cars daily, and they all have confidence in what they see advertised therein. A shrewd sugar refiner would find this a model market for a
